

By the numbers - Central Canada

Direct employment

7,800

people are directly employed by Central Canada's energy industry

6 integrated Canadian energy sectors are included in this outlook:

conventional exploration and production (E&P), energy services, pipelines, petroleum refining, low-carbon hydrogen and biomass-based fuels

81 occupations

are included in Careers in Energy's (CIE) labour market modelling system

-360

potential direct jobs are projected to be lost between 2026 and 2035

2,170

energy workers are eligible to retire over the forecast period

1,810

net hiring requirements projected over the forecast period, if Central Canada's energy industry fills all job openings created by industry activity and retirements

2.2x

higher average total compensation in the energy industry compared to the Canadian average

Indirect employment

101,600

indirect jobs across Central Canada are sustained annually to support industry's operations supply chain

5,400

jobs are created across the economy for every $1 billion spent on developing and constructing energy infrastructure projects

